To Whom It May Concern,

I believe the terms outlined by the current agreement between Microsoft and the Department of Justice are adequate to address the Anti-Trust concerns by all parties.

As an end user, and as an Information Technology professional I have used and will continue to use, support and recommend Microsoft products to my clients. This includes Operating Systems as well as Windows, Apple Office Applications and Internet Browsers. I do believe that Microsoft has the best product, support and pricing on the market and in that I see tremendous value to me and my clients as consumers. I do view the continued pursuit of additional sanctions against Microsoft as productive in any way, and I don't see how additional value would be derived from the additional penalties.

I would hope all parties can bring this matter to a final resolution in a expedient manner.

Thank You,
